OVERVIEW

Centrally located within the popular village of Levens, South View is a period property with a wealth of character and lots of potential. Larger than expected, the property has three double bedrooms and two reception spaces. Beamed ceilings run through the ground floor and there are thick walls and deep-set windows on both floors. From the first floor are views across the Lyth Valley towards Whitbarrow Scar and the property boasts a pretty mature cottage style garden at the rear. Available with no onward chain, there is fantastic potential to create a wonderful forever home and there is scope to reconfigure the layout for more modern living whilst retaining the integrity of the original house. Well located for the village shop, primary school, bus stop and pub.

ACCOMMODATION

From Main Street, a part glazed door leads into:

DINING ROOM/SNUG

9' 1" x 14' 0" (2.77m x 4.27m)

A window faces the front aspect and there are exposed beams to the ceiling. Stone plinth and electric fire and two ceiling lights.
