OVERVIEW

With an elevated position to take advantage of views across Kendal, elegant period features throughout and no onward chain, this wonderful detached 1930s style house is worthy of viewing. Located in an historic area, close to the town centre, supermarket and amenities, the property also has good access to Serpentine Woods, Cunswick Scar, Kendal Golf Course and Bowling Fell.

Rangemoor has a traditional layout with the ground floor rooms flowing from a generous hallway - the two front facing reception rooms have bay windows and pleasant outlooks whilst the kitchen at the rear has been updated in recent years with high end Siematic units and a unique splashback. The three first floor bedrooms each boast an ensuite shower room or WC, ideal for busy family mornings, plus there is a potential fourth bedroom on the ground floor with ensuite - perfect for visitors or those with dependent relatives.

Externally, the property comes into its own - a wonderfully planted and maintained garden space extends to the front, side and rear, a rarity in this location and there is a walled allotment for buyers wishing to grow their own produce. This is a charming house which has been well maintained with modern decor blending with the period features, updated double glazed windows and gas central heating throughout.
